The Spirit of Leadership – Winning Hearts and Inspiring Action

Valerie Van Brocklin

For over 20 years Val Van Brocklin has been winning hearts, inspiring action and helping people find greater meaning in the work they do. She got here through a unique combination of skills, education, and “in the trenches” experience – all fueled by her own passion for people who have chosen to serve others.

Val had a teaching career before she earned her law degree at the University of Virginia and stalked high adventure in Alaska – joining the Anchorage District Attorney’s Office. She quickly became a senior trial attorney. Because of her notable work, Val was asked to join the state’s Office of Special Prosecution & appeals where she had statewide investigative and prosecution efforts. She was subsequently recruited by the U.S. Attorney’s Office to prosecute complex white collar crime, for which she received the FBI’s commendation.

Throughout her career, Val’s dynamic style made her a frequently invited speaker for law enforcement and other professional and community groups. Described by Calibre Press as “the indisputable master of enter – train – ment,” Val is an internationally sought keynote speaker, trainer, workshop leader and author.
