Course: Crisis intervention is NOT psychotherapy, rather it is a specialized acute emergency mental health intervention which requires specialized training. Crisis intervention is sometimes called "emotional first-aid." Crisis interventions are typically done individually (one-on-one) or in groups. This program is designed to teach participants the fundamentals of, and a specific protocol for individual intervention. Topics to be covered include: The role of the individual crisis intervention in the comprehensive CISM program. Terms and concepts relevant to the study of crisis, traumatic stress and crisis intervention. Differential utilities of selected crisis communication techniques. Demonstration of selected crisis communication techniques. Psychological reactions to crisis and trauma. SAFER protocol for individual crisis intervention and it's role in comprehensive CISM. Demonstration of the use of SAFER protocol for individual crisis intervention. Review of common problems encountered with individuals in crisis.

Instructor: Course will be taught by instructor Michael R. Cobb, B.A. Ed., B.C.E.T.S. Michael Cobb currently serves as a Captain with the Richland, Washington Police Department. Captain Cobb has 18 years experience as a member of the special weapons and tactics (SWAT) team and served as a K-9 handler for 9 years. Capt. Cobb provides CISM specialty team services to the WSTOA. Mike is a faculty member with the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation and serves on the ICISF's International Advisory Committee. Captain Cobb is a Board Certified Expert in Traumatic Stress and a Diplomate member of the American Academy of Experts in Traumatic Stress.
