Women in Command is an energetic and interactive two-day course conceived, constructed, and taught by successful female law enforcement executives.

Being a female leader in a male-dominated profession has its own distinct set of challenges and leading in today's climate has created more obstacles than ever before. Female leaders have unique ideas, insight, and solutions that make them invaluable. We will examine these qualities and offer tools to assist current and future women in command in implementing effective skills to inspire and motivate their staff with a focus on maintaining a professional, positive and inspiring climate.

This program will offer examples of the traits and skill sets of proven, successful leaders and accomplished agencies. This course features lively, engaging discussions in an open forum populated by current and future women law enforcement leaders. This class is suitable for both sworn and non-sworn personnel.

Course topics include:

- The Principles of Effective Leadership
- Leading in Today's Unique Climate
- Creating and Maintaining Effective Organizational Structure
- Leadership Qualities Unique to Women
- Learning from Successful Female Leaders
- Leading in a Male Dominated Profession
- Supervising other Women
- Building your Credibility
- Mentoring and Leading by Example
- Breaking Through the Glass Ceiling
- Self-Examination
