

National University Public Safety Command and Community Leadership College

Creating Safer Communities by Bringing Together Public Safety and Private Sector Leaders

This groundbreaking leadership program brings together purpose-driven and selfless leaders across multiple sectors, who are committed to ensuring safer communities.

First Leadership Academy to Combine Public Safety Leaders and Private Sector Executives

- Gain 21st century leadership skills through current, relevant, and timely case studies.
- Embrace modern leadership principles.
- Stackable for academic credit into the Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctorate programs in Criminal Justice.

Boise, ID and Surrounding Communities

Spring 2025

Hosted by the Caldwell Police Department

Learn from Leaders in the Field

The NU Command College is designed and taught by nationally experienced law enforcement professionals from Advanced Team Leadership (ATL).

Program Details

This 8-week program is delivered in a hybrid format, blending the flexibility of online education with the invaluable experience and networking opportunities of in-person training. NU's partnership with ATL allows us to bring the program to markets across the country at host agencies.

- Length: 8-weeks
- Cost: $4,995 per learner
- Currently enrolling for the Boise, ID area for Spring 2025

REGISTER HERE:

