INSTRUCTORS

- YONG LEE - Pistol

Yong Lee retired from Bellevue Police (WA) in December 2018 after 30 years of service. With extensive experience as a Firearms Instructor and Competition Shooter, he served 11 years as a SWAT Operator and 3 years as a SWAT Team Leader. Lee was key in implementing the Red Dot Pistol program at Bellevue PD. A USPSA Grandmaster in five divisions, he won the 2020 USPSA Area 1 Championship in Carry Optics. Lee is also a California POST certified "Train the Trainer" Red Dot Pistol Instructor, with his course adopted by CA POST. BENNIE W. COOLIE JR.

- BENNIE W. COOLIE JR. - Patrol Rifle

Bennie Cooley has extensive SWAT training experience, providing professional training to military and law enforcement units at various levels. He served on the Mountain States Tactical Officers Association board and received their Excellence Award for winning back-to-back National SWAT Team Championships. Bennie earned two World Class Quality Improvement Awards for his leadership in training personnel in CQB Shooting, Long Range Engagements, Active Shooter, and Hostage Rescue Operations.

- CORY FELDMAN - Breaching

Cory Feldman has 23 years of law enforcement experience, currently working in the field. His roles include Jail Manager, Patrol Deputy, School Resource Officer, Training Deputy, and Property Crimes Detective. Cory's additional duties involve instruction in various tactical operations, including Active Shooter Response, Less Lethal Weapons, and Firearms. He has served as an explosive breacher on the ADA Metro SWAT Team and is currently a sniper with the Ada County SWAT Team.

- CHARLES TATE MOOTS - Scoped Carbine

With over 30 years of experience in federal law enforcement, including expertise in security, emergency preparedness, and tactical operations, I specialize in training U.S. Special Forces, law enforcement, and military personnel. My background includes instructing in firearms (pistol, carbine, sniper/marksman rifles), SWAT tactics, convoy operations, and advanced training techniques. Certified by organizations like FLETC and USDOE, I have a proven record in various competitive shooting events and have designed training programs aimed at preparing warfighters for any challenge they may face. My mission is to ensure individuals are well-prepared, allowing them to thrive and lead long, successful lives. Currently, I am an instructor at Shaw Shooting/Mid-South Training Institute.

LAW ENFORCEMENT FIREARMS CONFERENCE

MAY 28-29, 2025

FIREARMS CONFERENCE

The Law Enforcement Firearms Conference, hosted at the Double Tapp Range in Boise, Idaho, is set for May 28-29, 2025. This premier two-day event offers specialized training in Patrol Rifle, Handgun, and Mechanical & Ballistic Breaching. The evening of day one will also include incident debriefs of officer-involved shootings. Expert instructors, including Bennie Coolie, Yong Lee, and Cory Feldman, bring extensive experience to the table, providing participants with tactical knowledge and hands-on skill-building.

Attendees will gain insight into advanced firearms techniques and breaching strategies, honing their proficiency in real-world law enforcement scenarios. Additionally, the conference fosters valuable networking opportunities, allowing law enforcement professionals to connect and exchange knowledge.

With a focus on delivering high-quality, professional-grade training equipment and experiences, the conference aims to enhance participants' tactical capabilities. The limited availability of spots ensures an intimate and impactful learning environment, so early registration is highly encouraged.

For more information about the conference and to register, please visit LE Firearms Conference.
