

IDAHO THREAT ASSESSMENT CONFERENCE

2025

ITAC

Featured Presentations:

- A debrief on the Covenant Elementary School active shooter incident, Nashville, TN.
- A joint presentation from the FBI and Dr. Nicholas Beliz on copycat culture and coded language, exploring the intersection of ideologies among school shooters, mass shooters, and potential extremists both online and offline.
- Threat management insights from a 20+ year stalking case study.
- Retired Special Agent Jonny Grusing will present an in-depth analysis of the Harold Henthorn case study.
- ...and much more!

In-Person and Virtual Options

In-Person – Early Bird $395 (until March 15),
$495 Regular Price

Virtual – Early Bird $295 (until March 15),
$395 Regular Price

Who Should Attend?

Threat assessment/behavioral intervention team members, School Resource Officers, law enforcement, school safety officials, public safety personnel, mental health professionals, event security staff, venue managers, emergency management personnel, risk managers, human resources, legal personnel, school administrators, teachers and professionals interested in learning more about threat assessment.

JUNE 17-18

8AM - 4PM

REGISTER TODAY!

