Courtroom Testimony: A Cop's Perspective

Instructor: Tyler Sutherland has been a police officer for over 19 years with the Battle Creek Police Department, in Battle Creek MI. He is currently assigned to his police departments Detective Bureau and is the owner of Resilient Response LLC, a Law Enforcement Training Company, established in the state of Michigan. Before being promoted to Detective, Tyler Sutherland worked as a road patrol officer for five years, and then assigned to the police department's Gang Suppression Unit for 8 years. Tyler received his bachelor's degree from Adrian College, while majoring in criminal justice, and a minor in psychology.

As a member of the Gang Unit and Detective Bureau, Tyler Sutherland has been the lead investigator in several gang and violent crime cases involving evidence with cell phones, social media, drug investigations, writing and executing search warrants, surveillance techniques, undercover drug buys, managing confidential informants, and interview and interrogation techniques. These investigations resulted in several hundred hours of courtroom testimony and trial experience for Tyler. While participating in all aspects of gang investigations and court room prosecution, Detective Sutherland, has been qualified as, and testified as a gang expert, in U.S. Federal Court, Michigan State Circuit Court, and Michigan State District Court, several times his police career.

In addition, Detective Tyler Sutherland has also been recognized in Michigan State District Court and Circuit Court as an expert in drug trafficking, identifying armed subjects, and cell phone records analyses. Detective Sutherland is a Defensive Tactics Instructor, Firearms Instructor, a Patrol Training Officer, a Task Force Officer for Homeland Security Investigations, and an adjunct teaching instructor at Kellogg Community College Police Academy. After several hundred hours of training, education, research, and on the job experience, Tyler has developed several Law Enforcement Training Courses within Resilient Response LLC., such as Officer Safety Tactics, Street Gang Investigations and Gang Expert Testimony, Understanding Use of Force, and Courtroom Testimony.

Course Description:

This course is designed to improve your skills in testimony, increase your awareness of the court system processes, and help you understand your role in describing the elements of the crime to a judge or jury in a reasonable light. The initial investigation, arrest, or traffic citation is only the beginning stage of a long legal process. This class will discuss details involved in your initial court hearing, suppression hearings, explanations and descriptions of physical evidence, expert testimony, witness testimony issues, and closing statements by the attorneys. One of the most important tools often overlooked during the training cycle of law enforcement officers, is how to win in court when the defense attorney attempts to distract the jury with claims of insufficient evidence, lazy police procedure, and inconsistent witness testimony. The instructor in this course will provide useful tools on the importance of police report documentation to help you recover in the courtroom after a witness provides incomplete testimony or fails to provide complete details on the witness stand. This class will provide you with the foresight, and attention to detail, to consider at your next investigation to win over the jury in your future courtroom presentation.
