

Dynamic Handgun Course

Credit Hours: 16 Hours

Course Number: R4-259

Course Description:

This course is designed to give the student the opportunity to hone their shooting skills through appropriate visual and physical input on the gun to improve their accuracy and speed. By doing so, it will improve the student's ability to deliver effective hits in a constantly changing environment. In the constantly changing environment, students need to understand the safest place to orient the muzzle when the priority is not shooting. In turn, this enhances the student's mental bandwidth to make sound decisions about when to use lethal force, how to apply it, and when to stop.

Equipment List:

Duty Belt

Handgun with at least 3 magazines

If carrying a 1911 single stack, at least 5 magazines
