Idaho Peace Officer Standards and Training
Code of Ethics

As a member of the law enforcement profession, my fundamental duty is to serve the community; to safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the peaceful against violence or disorder; and to respect the Constitutional right s of all to liberty, equality, and justice.

I will keep my private life unsullied as an example to all and will behave in a manner that does not bring discredit to me or to my agency. I will maintain courageous calm in the face of danger, scorn, or ridicule; develop self-restraint; and be constantly mindful of the welfare of others. Honest in thought and deed in both my personal and official life, I will be exemplary in obeying the law and the regulations of my department. Whatever I see or hear of a confidential nature or that is confided to me in my official capacity will be kept ever secret, unless revelation is necessary in the performance of my duty.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, political beliefs, aspirations, animosities, or friendships to influence my decisions. With no compromise for crime and the relentless prosecution of criminals, I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately without fear or favor, malice, or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence and never accepting gratuities.

I recognize the badge or position of my office as a symbol of public faith, and I accept it as a public trust to be held so long as I am true to the ethics of law enforcement service/public service. I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other law enforcement or emergency communications officers. I will cooperate with all legally authorized agencies and their representatives in the pursuit of justice.

I know that I alone am responsible for my own standard of professional performance and will take every reasonable opportunity to enhance and improve my level of knowledge and competence.

I will constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals, dedicating myself before God, or have a sincere and unfaltering commitment to my chosen profession...law enforcement.

POST Administrator's Message

Today marks an important milestone in your journey and the beginning of a career dedicated to service. Congratulations to each of our Basic Academy graduates. Completing the Academy requires commitment, discipline, resilience, and a willingness to rise to every challenge. Today, as you take the Oath, you join the ranks of Idaho law enforcement professionals entrusted with serving and protecting our communities.

I would like to extend a special thank you to our Academy Coordinators. They are far more than Coordinators; they are mentors, leaders, and the steady presence who guide each class from the first day of the Academy to graduation. Their dedication and commitment to every student helps shape the professional, ethical officers who leave this Academy, and Idaho law enforcement is stronger because of their work.

I also want to recognize our instructors, graders, role players, and the entire POST staff. Thank you for your professionalism and for the countless hours you devote to preparing the next generation of Idaho law enforcement professionals.

I would like to recognize the families, friends, and loved ones who have supported these graduates, thank you. Your encouragement and sacrifice have been essential to their success.

Congratulations, welcome to Idaho's law enforcement family, and best wishes for a safe, honorable, and rewarding career.
