Instructor: Jason Woodard is a 21-year veteran of law enforcement and is currently employed by the Sparks Police Department in Sparks, NV. As the Support Services / Training Sergeant for a mid-sized police agency, Jason oversees all of the department's hiring, training and community outreach programs.

Jason spent the majority of his career assigned as a Detective with the Major Crimes Division investigating homicides, robberies, and other major felony crimes with an emphasis on child homicide cases. During Jason's tenure, he investigated and obtained legally sound confessions on several high-profile cases in his jurisdiction-- to include two death penalty cases--utilizing rapport-based interrogation techniques.

Jason holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix and is a part time instructor at the Northern Nevada Law Enforcement Academy. He has also been an instructor with the Interviews and Interrogation Institute since 2010, training active duty law enforcement across the nation in the art and science of human behavior and criminal interviews and interrogations.
